Please read this document in conjunction with the Privacy Policy for Patients.

What information do we collect about you :

We collect information about you when you register your interest with us or contact us on enquirer forms through this website. We use Google analytics to monitor the use of the website. Google analytics use cookies to help analyse how people use our website and this information may include your IP address and the pages you visit. You may refuse the use of cookies by using your browser settings.

Please note that information you send us may not be secure.

Cookies:

Cookies are text files placed on your computer to collect standard Internet log information and visitor behaviour information. This information is used to track visitor use of the website and to complete reports on website activity. For further information please visit: www.aboutcookies.org or www.allaboutcookies.org.

You can set your browser not to accept cookies and the above websites tell you how to remove cookies from your browser. However in a few cases some of our website features may not function as a result of this.

How will we use the information about you:

We collect information about you to answer your query and, if you agree, to email you about services we offer that may be of interest to you.

We will not share your information with anyone else without your permission.

Access to your information:

You have the right to request a copy of the information that we hold about you please email or write to us.

Other Websites:

Our website contains links to other websites. This Privacy Policy only applies to our website. So if you link into other websites please read the privacy policies of websites you link into.

Your legal rights:

You have a right to -

Request access to information we hold about you.

Request correction of any information we hold if the information is inaccurate.

Request erasure of your personal information if you feel that there is no purpose to hold information about you.

Request restriction of processing information we hold about you.

Sometimes there may be legal reasons as why we cannot do this, in which case we will explain to you why we are not able to do so.

Storage:

We will only store information about you if it is necessary, and will do so for the shortest possible time.

We have a system in place to regularly check whether the information we collect is stored only for a short time, not more than 12 weeks.

We regularly review patient information and erase personal data if it is no longer necessary to store it.
